

NOMAD SETTLES IN MANCHESTER

Established in 1990, Nomad has moved North and settled in a city centre venue in Manchester.

Nomad has brought its unique combination of travel & outdoor clothing and equipment with clinics specialising in travel health into the heart of Manchester.

Paul Goodyer, CEO of the Nomad Group said: 'We are already established in key cities in the South such as London, Bristol and Southampton and decided it was time to take our unique combination of travel clothing & equipment with specialist travel clinics further North.' Paul Goodyer continued: 'We spent a long time researching the area and Manchester was our first choice. We are highly impressed with the excitement and buzz in Manchester, it's a perfect fit with our concept'.

The Nomad Travel Clinics are Yellow Fever registered and staffed by Travel Health trained medical professionals administering travel vaccines including Rabies, Japanese Encephalitis, anti-malarials and medical kits. In addition the clinics also administer occupational vaccines such as Flu and Hepatitis B.

The staff in the store are intensely trained to ensure your rucksack fits, your boots are comfortable and you leave with exactly the right clothing and equipment for your trip or outdoor experience.

Already welcomed by the business sector, the student community and holiday makers, this new Nomad won't be upping sticks for quite a while!
